written for a wide range of readers in environmental science philosophy and policy oriented programs the routledge companion to environmental ethics is a landmark comprehensive reference work in this interdisciplinary field not merely a review of theoretical approaches to the ethics of the environment the companion focuses on specific environmental problems and other concrete issues its 65 chapters all appearing in print here for the first time have been organized into the following eleven parts i animals ii land iii water iv climate v energy and extraction vi cities vii agriculture viii environmental transformation ix policy frameworks and response measures x regulatory tools xi advocacy and activism the volume not only explains the nuances of important core philosophical positions but also cuts new pathways for the integration of important ethical and policy issues into environmental philosophy it will be of immense help to undergraduate students and other readers coming up to the field for the first time but also serve as a valuable resource for more advanced students as well as researchers who need a trusted resource that also offers fresh policy centered approaches the aesthetics of everyday life originally developed by henri lefebvre and other modernist theorists is an extension of traditional aesthetics usually confined to works of art it is not limited to the study of humble objects but is rather concerned with all of the undeniably aesthetic experiences that arise when one contemplates objects or performs acts that are outside the traditional realm of aesthetics it is concerned with the nature of the relationship between subject and object one significant aspect of everyday aesthetics is environmental aesthetics whether constructed as a building or manipulated as a landscape others also discussed in the book include sport weather smell and taste and food
